Government Bill

As reported from the Transport and Infrastructure Committee

Commentary

Recommendation

The Transport and Infrastructure Committee has examined the Building (Earthquake-prone Building Deadlines and Other Matters) Amendment Bill and recommends that it be passed. We recommend the amendments unanimously.

Introduction

The bill would amend the Building Act 2004 to extend by four years the remediation deadlines for buildings that are subject to earthquake-prone building notices. It would also introduce a power to further extend this deadline by up to two years by Order in Council. The blanket four-year extension is intended to provide certainty to building owners and territorial authorities while the Government conducts a review of the current system.

As well as extending the deadline for remediation work, the bill proposes some minor and technical amendments to improve the effectiveness of the Building Act.

Legislative scrutiny

As part of our consideration of the bill, we have examined its consistency with principles of legislative quality. We have no issues regarding the legislation's design to bring to the attention of the House.

Proposed amendments

We propose two minor changes to the bill as introduced.

Power to further extend deadlines

Clause 17 would insert new sections 133AMA to 133AMC into the principal Act. Section 133AMA relates to the deadlines for completing seismic work on or after 2 April 2024 for earthquake-prone building notices issued before the commencement of this section. Section 133AMB relates to the deadlines for completing seismic work as a result of notices issued on or after commencement of this section. Section 133AMC would allow the Governor-General to extend any of the deadlines under those two sections, by Order in Council made under section 402 of the Act on the recommendation of the Minister for Building and Construction.

The policy intent of this clause is that a further one-off extension of up to two years could be granted by Order in Council for all deadlines, namely:

- those originally extended by four years (under new section 133AMA), and
- those issued between commencement and the Order in Council being made (under new section 133AMB).

We think that the bill as introduced is not sufficiently clear that this extension would apply to all deadlines set under both sections 133AMA and 133AMB. We therefore recommend amending clause 17 to state that the extension would apply to all deadlines issued under both sections, not just those issued under one of them.

Comments from Regulations Review Committee

The Regulations Review Committee wrote to us about the regulation-making powers in the bill. It noted that the proposed new power to extend statutory deadlines is a “Henry VIII” power, as it effectively allows the Minister to set a date later than that expected by Parliament. That committee noted that the bill contains no restrictions on when and why the power may be exercised, and considered it “odd” to introduce this level of flexibility. The Regulations Review Committee recommended that we consider amending this clause to include additional safeguards.

We understand that clause 17 was intended to be drafted in this way to provide clarity and certainty to building owners and territorial authorities pending the review of current seismic risk settings, and any subsequent legislative amendments. The Order in Council power could only be used once, for a period of up to two years, and would be automatically repealed on 2 April 2028. Some of us agree with the Regulations Review Committee’s concerns, because we believe this power makes things less clear and certain for building owners. The power would also be subject to the Legislation Act 2019, which would effectively allow the House to overrule any decision to utilise this power if the House felt it necessary to do so. The majority of us are satisfied with the safeguards provided for in the bill and do not consider further changes necessary.

Duties of stand-alone building consent authorities

Clause 26 in the bill as introduced would replace section 238 of the principal Act. This section requires stand-alone building consent authorities to provide information relating to a building consent to the territorial authority. As introduced, new section 238(1)(c)(iv) would require information listed in section 238A(4) to be provided to the relevant territorial authority within 5 working days of the information being received by the territorial authority.

We recommend that this be amended to clarify that the information should be provided to the territorial authority within 5 working days after being received by the stand-alone building consent authority (not the territorial authority), as this is the party who holds this information.

Other matters

The following issues were also raised during our consideration of the bill. Although we do not propose any amendments in relation to them, we recommend that the House note these matters.

Capacity of the infrastructure sector to implement the bill

We have some concerns about the infrastructure sector's capacity to deal with the remediation-related works required by the Act, even with the extensions provided for in the bill. Advisers told us that the blanket extension to remediation deadlines, as proposed in the bill, would be the easiest approach for the sector to understand and implement. We heard that this blanket approach would reduce strain on the sector by avoiding adding to existing clusters of deadlines in certain years. Advisers also said that the review of the management of seismic risk in existing buildings will consider matters such as sector capacity to undertake remediation work.

We are aware of another review, into the building warrant of fitness (BWOFF) regime, that the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment may explore if time and resources allow. We consider that possible capacity issues, and other issues raised by submitters, could be addressed in this review, and look forward to seeing its findings.

Independently qualified persons

Clause 12 would insert new section 108A into the Building Act. This new section would introduce an offence for independently qualified persons (IQPs) who falsely state that inspection, maintenance, or reporting procedures for a building's specified system have been complied with.

Submitters suggested some amendments, including:

- defining the terms "every person" and "fully complied", as used in new section 108A(1)
- lowering the penalty for the initial offence, and increasing it with subsequent offences
- adding a defence for mistakes made due to lack of specific training in a specified system or reliance on inaccurate information supplied by a council, territorial authority, or other person.

We consider that the fines regime relies heavily on the council's competency to provide accurate information. We note in particular the submission from the Association of Building Compliance. This organisation consists of people who are registered

IQPs. This submission agreed with proposed section 108A, but said that owners, designers, fire engineers, installers, and council officials should also be liable if the work they undertake is done incorrectly. The association believes that IQPs should not be held responsible for work they were not involved in. It recommended:

- creating a national IQP registration panel
- creating a national building compliance register
- increasing qualification benchmarks for IQPs
- requiring building officials to have a minimum standard of knowledge and/or qualifications
- making building compliance documentation publicly available for IQPs and building owners.

We agree with many of these ideas, and believe that the points raised should be considered in future. We note the points raised about training and professional development and consider that further work on this should be done. We are aware that a review into the matter is on the ministry's workplan. We urge the ministry to take these points into consideration when conducting this review.

On balance, we consider that the duties and penalties provided for in the bill as introduced are reasonable for now, but we expect these could be reconsidered after the ministry's review is completed. We do not propose any changes to clause 12 at this stage.

Subpart 1—Amendments to Parts 1 and 2 of principal Act

4 Section 7 amended (Interpretation)

- (1) In section 7(1), insert in its appropriate alphabetical order:
- stand-alone building consent authority means a building consent authority that is not—
- (a) a territorial authority; or
- (b) a regional authority
- (2) In section 7(1), replace the definition of seismic work with:
- seismic work, in relation to a building or part of a building that is subject to an EPB notice,—
- (a) means the building work required to ensure that the building or part is no longer earthquake-prone; and
- (b) may include the demolition of a building or part of a building
- (3) After section 7(1), insert:
- (1A) A reference to a regional authority in paragraph (b) of the definition of stand-alone building consent authority is for the avoidance of doubt and does not limit the application of section 14(3), which provides, among other matters, that references in certain sections to territorial authorities include regional authorities.

Amendments relating to levies 205 Section 58 replaced (Liability to pay levy: stand-alone building consent authority)

Replace section 58 with:

- 58 Liability to pay levy: stand-alone building consent authority
- (1) A stand-alone building consent authority, on the grant of a building consent, becomes liable to the chief executive for the levy payable under section 53 in relation to the building work to which the building consent relates. (However, see section 61, which provides for a transfer of liability in respect of short-falls caused by the failure of an applicant to pay a levy.)
- (2) A stand-alone building consent authority must pay the levy to the chief executive by the 20th day of the month following the month in which the relevant building consent was granted.
- (3) Every payment of the levy must be accompanied by a certificate of the stand-alone building consent authority, or of an officer or agent of the authority, that states that the payment is correct—
- (a) according to the financial records of the authority; and

- (b) to the best of that person’s knowledge and belief.
- (4) A person who fails to comply with subsection (2)—
- (a) commits an offence; and
  - (b) is liable on conviction,—
    - (i) in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding $5,000: 5
    - (ii) in the case of a body corporate, to a fine not exceeding $25,000.
- 6 Section 59 amended (Liability to pay levy: territorial authority)
- In section 59(1), delete “or on receiving all or any of the information specified in section 238(1)(c)”.
- 7 Sections 60 to 62 replaced 10
- Replace sections 60 to 62 with:
- 60 Building consent authority may retain part of levy
- (1) A building consent authority may retain 3% of the levies for which the authority is liable, under section 58 or 59, in any month.
  - (2) Subsection (1) is subject to section 61. 15
- 61 Chief executive may recover unpaid levies from territorial authority or stand-alone building consent authority
- (1) The consequences specified in subsection (2) apply if a territorial authority or stand-alone building consent authority that is liable to pay levies to the chief executive under section 58(1) or 59(1) fails to pay the levies by the date referred to in section 58(2) or 59(2), as applicable. 20
  - (2) The consequences are that—
    - (a) section 60(1) does not apply; and
    - (b) the chief executive may recover, as a debt due from the territorial authority, or, unless paragraph (c) applies, the stand-alone building consent authority, the amount of those levies and any interest on that amount calculated—
      - (i) in monthly instalments at the monthly basic lending rate of the Ministry’s bank; and
      - (ii) for the period of each month, or part of a month, starting on the date payment is due and ending on the date payment is made; but 25
    - (c) if a failure on the part of a stand-alone building consent authority to pay the levy arises from an applicant’s failure to pay the amount of levies and any interest on the amount calculated, the liability for the shortfall ceases to be the liability of that authority and— 35
      - (i) becomes instead the liability of the territorial authority for the district in which the relevant building consent was granted; and

- (ii) may be recovered by that territorial authority under section 62(2); and
- (d) if a failure on the part of a stand-alone building consent authority to pay the levy arises for reasons other than an applicant’s failure to pay the levy, then the liability for the shortfall remains that of the stand-alone building consent authority. 5
- 62 Territorial authority may recover unpaid levies from applicant for building consent
- (1) The consequence specified in subsection (2) applies if an applicant for a building consent fails to pay a levy or part of a levy under section 53 by the time referred to in section 53(2)(b)(ii). 10
- (2) The consequence is that the territorial authority, or, if the application was made to a stand-alone building consent authority, the territorial authority for the district in which the relevant building consent was granted, may recover, as a debt due from the applicant, the amount of those levies and any interest on that amount calculated— 15
- (a) in monthly instalments at the monthly basic lending rate of the building consent authority’s bank; and
- (b) for the period of each month, or part of a month, starting on the date payment is due and ending on the date payment is made. 20
- (3) Any amount recovered under subsection (2)—
- (a) must, as soon as practicable after it is recovered, be paid to the chief executive; and
- (b) may be recovered by the chief executive from the territorial authority after the 20th day of the month following the month in which it was recovered by the territorial authority under subsection (2). 25
- 8 Section 63 amended (Chief executive may obtain information in order to assess amount of levy payable)
- In section 63(2)(b), after “consent authority”, insert “(including a stand-alone building consent authority, as applicable)”. 30
- 9 Section 64 amended (Audit of issue of building consents for purpose of ascertaining payment of levy)
- (1) Replace section 64(1) with:
- (1) A building consent authority must keep in safe custody all records of building consents granted by the building consent authority, including— 35
- (a) the estimated value of the building work to which each consent relates; and
- (b) the amount of any levy payable under section 53; and

- (c) the date of payment of the levy to the chief executive.
- (2) In section 64(2), replace “territorial authority” with “building consent authority” in each place.
- (3) In section 64(3), replace “territorial authority” with “building consent authority”.

Amendments relating to certificates of acceptance

10 Section 96 amended (Territorial authority may issue certificate of acceptance in certain circumstances)

- (1) In section 96(3), replace “This section” with “Subsection (1)”.
- (2) After section 96(3), insert:
- (4) However, if a certificate of acceptance for any work is issued under section 99, it is not necessary for any person to apply for a building consent in respect of that work.

10

Amendments relating to annual building warrant of fitness

11 Section 108 amended (Annual building warrant of fitness)

15

In section 108(7), after “subsection (3)(d)”, insert “and section 108A”.

After section 108, insert:

108A Duties of independently qualified person

- (1) An independently qualified person must not state (whether in a building warrant of fitness or any other document) that the inspection, maintenance, or reporting procedures in a compliance schedule relating to a specified system (for example, a lift or ventilation system) have been complied with during the previous 12 months if those inspection, maintenance, or reporting procedures for that system have not been fully complied with during that period.
- (2) Every person who acts in breach of subsection (1) commits an offence.
- (3) It is a defence to a prosecution for an offence against subsection (1) if the defendant proves that—
- (a) the failure to comply with subsection (1) was due to—
- (i) a reasonable mistake; or
